Company Data

With operational centers in IL, NC, SC, VA and TX, Cimplx IT-Productivity is a Certified HUB Zone and Veteran Owned Small Business specializing in Integrated Logistics and 3rd Party Fulfillment/Business Process Outsourcing (BPO). Started in 2009 as Autumnwood Services, Inc., a software development company servicing the manufacturing industry by providing solutions for ecommerce and business management including fulfillment, inventory control, warehouse management and business analysis. Cimplx utilizes proprietary productivity/logistics software and the management team's decades of BPO experience to develop a unique engineered solution approach. Solutions are customizable and scalable.

Differentiators

Rooted in Information Technology and Manufacturing Systems with an embedded culture of ISO Quality Management, Agile Project Management and Lean Six Sigma Continuous Improvement principals, Cimplx Productivity has a high success rate of engineering low cost, highly repeatable and accurate solutions. This differentiator is why we not only provide great service but we also share in the risk associated with rework or quality issues.

Cimplx is a "go to" solution provider when a need is outside your normal core functionality or is outside your planned capacity. Our team is very quickly scaled, highly accurate and guaranteed cost output even when the scope's capacity is uncertain or prone to change. We provide Value in that we will scale our IT infrastructure, workforce, overhead and facilities as needed, reducing the need for the client to do this themselves.

In addition to skilled personnel, Cimplx offers floor space, equipment and warehousing to provide sprint capacity for seasonal or unexpected demand and significant savings on everyday repetitive operations such as assembly, sorting and inspection. No other BPO solutions provider can pull technology, process engineering and facilities together (in a very short notice) as we can for you.
